For items 8, 9, & 10 please document your work in a streamlined professional portfolio with an annotated index and sections divided by tabs. Select representative work done within the last 3 years or since your last promotion. Focus on relevant work that best represents the level and quality of your productivity.

8. Evidence of Effective Teaching (e.g., courses taught, seminars, new courses developed, innovations, student evaluations, syllabi)

As for teaching, my course evaluations and my peer evaluations show I receive high marks for my teaching. For detail also see my external letters and students letters. In my courses

I put a lot of time into using instructional technologies to engage my students. See my course web pages and also see review letters, especially the letter from Dr. Bowman. Also note that I have been asked to give three workshops in which I instructed other NSU faculty on how to use instructional technologies in their classrooms. See more detail on my teaching in the relevant letters of support, my C.V. and also on my teaching page.

9. Professional Contributions and Recognition (e.g., research, grants, professional memberships, performing or visual arts experience, publications in professional journals, papers presented, panel participation, honors received) during the past three years:
